The situation in the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia

Letter dated 3 April 1997 from the Secretary-General addressed to the President of the Security Council (S/1996/276)

The President: I should like to inform the Council that I have received a letter from the representative of the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, in which he requests to be invited to participate in the discussion of the item on the Council's agenda. In conformity with the usual practice, I propose, with the consent of the Council, to invite that representative to participate in the discussion, without the right to vote, in accordance with the relevant provisions of the Charter and rule 37 of the Council's provisional rules of procedure.

There being no objection, it is so decided.

At the invitation of the President, Mr. Čalovski (the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia) took a seat at the Council table.

It is my understanding that the Council is ready to proceed to the vote on the draft resolution (S/1997/290) before it. Unless I hear any objection, I shall put the draft resolution to the vote now.
